- ♦ Adventures of the Apostle Paul Audience Code: P
Category Topic: SE
Media Type: DVD

An animated program that introduces children ages eight and above to the incredible life and work of the Apostle Paul. Take a look back about 1,960 years and accompany the Apostle Paul on his travels. For him and his friends, events are often life-threatening in Damascus, Philippi, on the Mediterranean Sea and on the island of Malta. Yet even in these dangerous situations, Paul knows that God will never leave him. To understand how the early church survived, spread, and grew after the ascension of Jesus, it is necessary to become familiar with the life and ministry of the Apostle Paul. Here is a superb way to introduce children to the early church, the spread of the Gospel after the time of Jesus on this earth, and the crucial role played by Paul as the greatest missionary who ever lived.

Three 9-minute animated segments:

Struck Blind! - Paul shares how it all began (Acts 7-9)

Imprisoned at Philippi - Paul and Silas en route (Acts 16)

Shipwrecked at Malta - Paul as a prisoner makes it to Rome (Acts 27-28)

◆ Jacob's Gift

Audience Code: PI
Category Topic: SE
Media Type: VHS

Jacob is a young boy with a gift for carpentry who is busy finishing up a project for a contest. His teacher, Rabbi Simeon, not only instructs him in carpentry, but also teaches him important lessons about God. Rabbi has just taught Jacob that when you give a gift to one of God's children, it's like giving a gift to God. The night before the contest while working on his project, Jacob has fallen asleep in the workshop and is awakened by a bright light. The light is a star which is directly over Jacob's father's stable. As he approaches the stable, he sees a man, a woman, and a newborn baby which is laying in the straw. Remembering what Rabbi Simeon had told him, Jacob returns to the workshop and takes his project (a feeding trough) to the new family. The morning of the contest, the Rabbi pleased to find out that Jacob has acted upon the lesson he learned and has truly given a gift to God.

◆ Teens in Crisis Series Description: This series included 5 videos (we are missing Relationship with Self video), which are geared to capture the hearts and minds of young people. A study guide is provided to foster open and honest discussion about sensitive issues facing teens. Inter-woven into the study guide are considerations from the biblical perspective which you will find helpful in addressing major problems confronting today's youth. The series has been produced for young people between 12 and 19th years of age. It is recommended that you view each 20 minute video prior to showing and that you familiarize yourself completely with the Leader's Guide for teaching or leading a group discussion.

◆ Teens in Crisis: Relationships with Friends

Audience Code: J
Category Topic: ST
Media Type: VHS

Few things are more valuable in life than friends. But for teenagers, making new friends is not always easy. Many teenagers will never know the value of true friendship until they run a gauntlet of obstacles. Young people face the fear of rejections... the exclusion of cliques... and the anxiety of peer pressure. The real life stories on this video provide answers for teenagers wanting to create lasting friendships, repair broken relationships, and how to handle the pressures associated with them.

◆ Teens in Crisis: Relationships with Parents

Audience Code: J
Category Topic: ST
Media Type: VHS

There's a crisis in the home... and nobody wants to talk out it. It's almost like a "wall of silence" has been built. With troubled parents on one side... and confused teenagers on the other. Communication has come to a screeching halt. A young daughter can no longer talk to her mother. An independent son doesn't want to listen to his dad. As a result, there's a lot of bitterness, misunderstanding, and tension, all at time with teenagers need Mom and Dad's love and understanding the most. This emotionally charged video will give teenagers the courage to tear down those "walls of silence" and heal those broken relationships.

◆ Teens in Crisis: Relationships with Opposite Sex

Audience Code: J
Category Topic: ST
Media Type: VHS

Relationships with the opposite sex are probably the most misunderstood of all teenage relationships. Dating can be exciting and scary at the same time. It's worse than an emotional roller coaster ride. Teenagers can feel wanted and loved one moment... and then feel rejected or used the next. While this service cannot promise a smooth trip on the roller-coaster ride of dating, it can give young people a "handle to hold onto" around those hairpin curves and down those steep inclines of dating. During this program, young people share their fears of dating. They discuss humorous thoughts on the perfect date. And then teenagers take you on their painful journeys of going "too far" on a date.

◆ Teens in Crisis: Relationships with the World

Audience Code: J
Category Topic: ST
Media Type: VHS

The problems of the world appear very remote to most teenagers. Young people study the world only in terms of geography, economic statistics, or political structure. But the world is made up of people. By traveling to Haiti, Kenya, El Salvador, India, and Zaire, this program takes a compassionate look at the impact of war, starvation, and religious superstitions have had around the world. It's not enough for Christian young people to relate only to the people in their neighborhood. They must look beyond the shores of America..... They must seize the opportunities of our day and make a difference in the world both now and eternity.

◆ That Catholic Show, Season 1

Audience Code: J-A
Category Topic: ST
Media Type: DVD

That Catholic Show is absolutely perfect for anyone who has ever asked questions like, "Why do Catholics sit, stand, and kneel all the time?" Or, "What is it with Catholics and statues?" Excellent for RCIA, Fully relying on Scripture, the Catechism, and the teachings of the Catholic Church, this DVD features eight amazing topics including: Sit, Stand, and Kneel - What is it with those Catholic calisthenics, and why are there so many various prayerful postures used in Liturgy? Candles and Light - Why are there so many candles on the altar, and what does the Bible say about candles and light? Night of the Living Catechism - A Catechism may be bigger than most phone books, but there's no reason to be afraid of it! Charity and Mercy - Living the beatitudes can be done in everyday life, starting in our homes. Statues and Icons - Do Catholics worship statues and icons? If not, why are there so many statues around? You Are a Priest Forever - A beautiful explanation of the Biblical basis for the sacramental priesthood. Water, Water Everywhere - How water, through baptism and in Scripture, acts as a symbol of death and new life. I Confess! - The Sacrament of Confession is not an interrogation, but a way of bringing us closer to God! Each episode runs 5-7 minutes and is great for kicking off conversations and discussions about the vibrant Catholic faith.

◆ The Mass for Children and Young People

Audience Code: PI
Category Topic: LI
Media Type: DVD

This collection of four programs focuses on the Eucharist as an integral part of our lives and spirituality as Catholics. The Mass for Older Children (Grades 4-8) Like the early followers of Jesus, we gather, tell stories, remember and break bread, and go forth to those in need. This program walks students through the Mass and challenges them to live it in their daily lives. (13 min.) Mass for Young Children (Grades 1-3) By linking home church and parish church, these two programs invite children to thank God for the gift of Jesus and the gifts of all creation, spotlighting parts of the Mass to which a young child can most easily relate and recognize. Part 1 (9 min.) focuses on the actions of Gathering and Greeting, Forgiving and Praising, Listening and Caring. Part 2 (10 min.) focuses on the actions of Giving and Sharing, Remembering and Belonging, Receiving and Serving. Why Do We Go to Mass on Sunday? (Grades 2-6) In this program, children discover that just as we need to gather regularly as a family at home to listen to one another and celebrate who we are, so must we come together as a parish family to listen to God's Word and break bread in memory of Jesus. Children begin to appreciate the Sunday Eucharist as the source and summit of our faith life and to discover ways to live a Eucharistic spirituality in their daily lives. (12 min.) ◆ Untold Stories of Columbine (DVD)

Audience Code: JH

Category Topic: ST

Here is an amazing story of hope from the horrific massacre at Columbine High School on April 20, 1999, where many innocent lives were lost. One of those was Rachel Joy Scott, mercilessly murdered for her faith in God. Now her death, her story and the courage behind it are reaching around the world, offering young people a new view of life. Darrell Scott, Rachel's father, shares how the tragedy has sparked many young people to take a stand for their faith in Christ. He reveals the amazing contents of his daughter's diaries and her apparent premonitions of what was to come.

Also included on this video are excerpts from Rachel's funeral service, as seen on CNN worldwide. This amazing story of tragedy and God's mercy is a powerful and shining testimony for Jesus Christ. Young people will be encouraged and challenged by Rachel's story to share Christ more freely and take a stand for their convictions. 80 minutes

Category Topic: LI
Media Type: VHS

Throughout the ages people have set aside one day of each week to rest from the work they do, to remember, to praise and to give thanks to God. Sunday is a gathering day for Christians to celebrate who they are as the people of God, to be with fellow believers in faith and friendship and to be challenged to make a difference in the world. The Sunday Sabbath is a day to keep holy! In this video children discover that just as we need to gather regularly as a family at home to listen to one another and celebrate who we are, so must we come together as a parish family to listen to God's word and break bread in memory of Jesus.

This video helps viewers appreciate the Sunday Eucharist as the source and summit of our faith life and to discover ways to live a Eucharistic spirituality in their daily lives.
