Pensamiento de mayordomía para la semana

"El Evangelio de hoy proporciona un plan para una Buena administración: "Que el hombre que tiene dos abrigos le de a quien no tiene ninguno. El hombre que tiene comida debería hacer lo mismo."

Question of the Week

Adult: "Knowing that God is in our midst, how can I answer the question from the Gospel: "What should I do?"

Child: "John the Baptist really puts the burden of discipleship right back on to those who ask: 'What shall we do?' John does exactly what Jesus would do: Tells each person to honestly and simply go the good you can! Ask the children to talk about how we know God is present in our world. Share about how we might respond to John the Baptist's challenge: What can we do?"

Pregunta de la Semana

Adulto: "Sabido que Dios está entre nosotros, ¿cómo puedo responder a la pregunta del Evangelio?" ¿Qué debo hacer?"

Niño: "Juan el Bautista realmente vuelve a poner la carga del discipulado en aquellos que preguntan: '¿Qué debemos hacer?' Juan hace exactamente lo que Jesús haría: ¡le dice a cada persona que haga lo que debe y que simplemente haga lo que pueda! Pida a los niños que hablen sobre cómo sabemos que Dios está presente en Nuestro mundo. Comparta sobre cómo podemos responder al desafío de Juan el Bautista: ¿Qué podemos hacer?"

Third Sunday of Advent

As you read the New Catholic Update - notice: the Third Week of Advent 'Rejoicing in God.' "Make this advent an opportunity to do something unexpected." 'Responding with Grace' Mary's prayerful perspective allows her to see that God's grace is already present in & around her & the world. 'Be Still, Know' We're told to hurry & rush, we can't know God unless we're still & make God a priority.' May we prioritize stillness, silence, and time alone with God in order to recognize & get to know Emmanuel, God who is always with us." Catholic Update
