Question of the Week

Adult: "How can I change the way I live my life in accordance with the Beatitudes? What can I do to receive the blessings of God and to help others receive those blessings as well?"

Child: "Have you ever felt God with you during a difficult time? How did it help you? How can you help those who are poor? What can you share with others? Have you ever helped someone who was hurt, sad or lonely? Could God have been using you to care for that person and bless them?"

Stewardship Thought for the Week

"The first reading says "Blessed is the one who trusts the Lord". Do we as stewards trust the Lord in the year of drought, show no distress and still bear fruit?"

Pensamiento de mayordomía para la semana

"La primera lectura dice:" Bienaventurado el que confía en el Señor". "¿Nosotros, como mayordomos, confiamos en el Señor en el año de sequía, no mostramos angustia y aun fructificamos?"

Why Be a Catechist?

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age." Matthew 28:19-20

The 2019-20 school year is fast approaching and although it is still in a far off distance, I am beginning my search for catechists for PSR and Confirmation.

The second reason to be a catechist: Your own faith will come alive.

According to Our Sunday Visitor, "one of the major benefits of being a catechist is that prayer and liturgy, even your own relationship with God, can become more vibrant and meaningful. By acting on what you believe and actively passing those beliefs on to others, you participate in a new way in the abundant life Jesus came to give us."

You might be surprised when your faith comes alive, it comes alive in those you are around whether in fire for their faith, it becomes contagious and the faith comes alive in our youth. St. Catherine of Siena said, "Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire." This is the New Evangelization that Pope St. John Paul II talks about.

"To this end, it is more necessary than ever for all the faithful to move from a faith of habit, sustained perhaps by social context alone, to a faith which is conscious and personally lived. The renewal of faith will always be the best way to lead others to the Truth that is Christ" (Bl. John Paul II, Ecclesia in America, no. 73).

Please prayerfully consider becoming a catechist, your reward will be great. Please contact Jackie Brown if you are interest, (620) 792-1396.

Shhhh. Listen! Are you being called?
